Mr. T. Channing told me the last night.

The day after the Purse appeared 6:40, came to him & told him story (Saturday) the Sunday before went to town. Parker gave service at 11:30 am. They agreed that R. N. should leave town to be about L. H. said he saw me in the Court house, him & 2 others were held by the marshals. Men: He thought my life in danger, found it & fell. Then they retreated. Channing thinks it saved my life, very luckily.

L. H. had not a Runs but for common wits, one of which was broke with a whip, W. T. C. and & fell admiral at the antepny, but was not Dr. R. T. Jackson who was
